Point Blank Online Not everyone can make it to our London or LA campuses to learn music production with Point Blank, so we have created a method of online learning for which we recently won a prestigious Webby Award. Our range of online courses cover all aspects of music production, mixing and mastering using Ableton Live and Logic Pro X, together with specific focuses such as composition, music business, sound design and more. Music Production Tutorials & News We're currently migrating data (including scrobbles) to our new site and to minimise data disruption, we've temporarily suspended some functionality. Rest assured, we're re-activating features one-by-one as soon as each data migration completes. Keep an eye on progress here . There are multiple artists with this name: 1. An American rock band 2. An American rapper 3. A Macedonian nu metal/hardcore band 4. A Canadian hip hop group 5. A Chinese oi! band 6. An alias of Belgian techno producer ... We have updated our live stream links!
